

Adrian M. Baca

Attorney

defenderofla@gmail.com

Phone: 213-384-4341

countless hours honing his skills to provide his clients with the type of representation they need when charged with a crime. As a result, he has built an excellent reputation as a formidable trial lawyer. He graduated, in 2012, from the prestigious Trial Lawyer's College (TLC), founded by renowned trial attorney Gerry Spence. In 2015, he was invited to join the TLC faculty, where he teaches trial skills to attorneys throughout the United States.

Mr. Baca represents individuals charged with serious crimes. His practice is focused in Los Angeles and throughout Southern California. His clients know that they can rely on him. Mr. Baca knows the law, he is responsive, hard-working and cares about your case. He keeps his clients informed. He offers honest, straightforward, and strategic advice. Clients are involved in their defense and make the most important decisions affecting their lives. Mr. Baca's goal is to protect and defend his clients.

Adrian M. Baca understands the criminal justice system. He has seen firsthand how the system is stacked against defendants. He has dedicated his life to leveling the playing field. Mr. Baca has a strong track record of success, achieving not guilty verdicts, dismissals and reduced sentences for clients facing life-changing consequences. He believes the trust you place in his office must be earned, especially for someone going through the darkest moments of their life.